29 Services 11:00am 5:00pm	30	Even for those who observe its religious context, Easter has become a holiday with multiple meanings. In the Christian tradition it marks the resurrection of Jesus, but because it occurs at the spring equinox eggs, baby chicks, fertile rabbits, and flowers have also come to represent resurrection and new awareness. Easter can be a contemplation of death and rebirth—a defeat over the powers of darkness. If Easter is not a religious holiday for you—and perhaps doubly so if it is—let it be a time for opening up and growing in joy. REJOICE in the Light!
